Yes, Sir, 'twill please me highly
To be your humble guest,
And while away the hours that day
In common with the rest;
To gather round the table
When festive hosts are fed;
Let me be one to share the fun
Accompanying the spread.

I want to hear the music
The happy bands will play,
To feel the thrills that it instills
In folks grown old and gray.
To matter if we're burdened
And sorrow make us sigh
When music's whip smites thigh and hip
Our troubles quickly fly.

The women and the men;
To eatch the glance in song or dance
And laugh with them again
About the things we cherished
When manhood was ablaze,
And love and youth brimmed o'er with truth,
And crowned our yesterdays.

God bless the brave Old Timer,
And keep you with us long,
We need your prayers in all our cares,
We need your cheerful song;
Though you are not as nimble
As you were yesterday;

Heave your chest and look your best
On this Old Timers day.

SIXTH ANNUAL CELEBRATION OF OLD TIMERS' ASSOCIATION GALA EVENT

Rock Springs, Wyo., June 26.—(Special News Bulletin.)—Rock Springs was the scene of many happy reunions here last week, when the Old Timers' Association of the Union Pacific Coal Company—one of the most unique organizations in the world and once termed "the outstanding symbol of understanding between employer and employe"—held its sixth annual Old Timers' Day celebration, preceded the day before by a first aid field day in which ten teams representing the Rock Springs, Reliance, Winton, Superior, Hanna and Cumberland, Wyo., and the Tono, Wash., districts and sixteen teams of girl and boy scouts from the Rock Springs, Reliance, Winton, Superior and Hanna, Wyo., districts competed.

The first aid meet was the most successful ever held by the company. W. D. Ryan, of the United States Bureau of Mines, with E. H. Denny, Roger Manning, Robert Dalrymple, Rex N. Coates, Lyman Fearn, David K. Wilson, Mahlon K. Quealy, Louis M. Kuhns, Matt Strannigan and Frank Pelican as judges, handled the program with the result that the following awards were made: Men's teams, Tono, first; Rock Springs No. 8, second, and Superior No. 1, third. Senior Girls Teams-Winton, first; Hanna, second, and Reliance, third, Junior Girls Teams-Hanna, first; Superior, second; Winton, third. Boys Teams-Hanna, first; Rock Springs, second; Winton, third. The winning first aid team from the Washington Union Coal Company of Tono, Wash., a subsidiary of the Union Pacific Coal Company, has now twice won the cup. The meet was largely attended, being held in the Union Pacific Coal Company Old Timers Building, at Rock Springs. In the evening a banquet was held for the boy and girl scouts at which the Tono first aid team and all of the judges participated. The banquet was also attended by several of the officials of the Union Pacific Coal Company, including Eugene McAuliffe, president of the company, and Mrs. McAuliffe. Mr. McAuliffe presented the prizes to the boy and girl scout winners in the first aid contest.

On Saturday, June 14, the "best" Old Timers meeting "ever" was held here at Rock Springs, starting in the morning with the business meeting, election of officers and eulogy on old timers who had died during the year. Chris Johnson, with forty-five years' service to his credit, was elected president.

After music had been furnished by the Cumberland, Hanna, Rock Springs and Reliance-Winton brass bands and President McAuliffe's kiltie band, a parade was formed at the Elks home on C street, the parade marching to the Old Timers building. about a mile distant on M and Pilot Butte avenue. In the parade were the president, vice-president and assistant general manager of the Union Pacific Coal Company, with James Moon, a veteran with fifty-three years' service prior to his retirement. Then followed the kiltie band with Old Timers in groups, carrying banners with their respective years' service, boy and girl scout winners in the first aid contest, and the men's winning team, followed by members of other competing first aid teams. On reaching the Old Timers building, the picture reproduced above, was taken of the Old Timers and their families. Adjournment was then made to the Old Timers building, where a banquet and program had been prepared.

At the banquet, 750 Old Timers and their families were seated, and enjoyed a splendid program. During the banquet, an Italian impersonator, who claimed he had not received his Old Timer's badge or any recognition as an old timer, created a great deal of amusement. The Missourians, a harmonica band from Cumberland, also added much to the enjoyment. Dr. Chambers, an Old Timer of the company, acted as toastmaster and Professor Kent, of Salt Lake City, led in the community singing. Rev. McMurdo Brown, Episcopalian minister, from Denver, gave a most witty and inspiring address, and told some particularly good Scotch stories. Mr. McAuliffe next presented the forty-year gold button to Mr. Axel. Johnson, who has been in the service for that period of time.

In the afternoon, a concert with massed brass bands was held, the music being most inspiring. The kiltie band was also very much in evidence with their bag pipes. Also during this period a horse shoe pitching contest was held for both men and women. This was an innovation, and was most enjoyed.

At eight o'clock an entertainment and dance was held in the Old Timers building at which several of the groups, comprising the different foreign employes, gave a fine exhibition of singing and dancing in their native costume. Again the pipers came to the fore with Highland dancing and tunes that kept the assembly in a particularly enthusiastic mood. An hour was spent in a grand march, quadrille, Virginia reel, and other old-time dances, the entertainment closing, with an hour of American dances. This completed the day's entertainment, and all felt that it had been the most successful day that the Old Timers' organization had ever enjoyed, this being the sixth of these meetings.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

JUNE 13, 1931

A cordial invitation is extended to the wives of Old Timers to attend a tea at 3:30 P. M. in the Library of the General Office Building.

IMPORTANT

A group picture of the Old Timers and their wives will be taken in front of the Old Timers' Building immediately after the parade. Don't fail to be on hand for this group.

GENERAL INFORMATION

During the day, automobiles will be furnished to take Old Timers for rides about the city, etc.

Transportation committee will look after your railroad arrangements.

Girl Scouts will gladly conduct ladies on shopping tours, locate friends, etc.

Boy Scouts will act in a similar capacity for the men.

For rooms in private homes, boarding houses, etc., make inquiry of members of Reception and Billeting Committee.

It must be distinctly understood that the various entertainments are exclusively for Old Timers and their wives. Owing to the large crowd expected, NO CHILDREN CAN BE TAKEN CARE OF.

Admission to the banquet and evening entertainment will be by cards or tickets, which will be handed members by Mine Superintendents. Do not expect to be admitted unless you can produce such cards or tickets. These cards of admission are positively non-transferable.

OLD-TIMER, COME TO THE FAIR

Come, Old-Timer! "Come to the fair,"
The city gates are open wide;
Your friends will all assemble there,
You'll see them when you step inside.
Luminous days! The sky is blue,
The hills, the old hills, green and brown,
Are waiting to smile down on you
Their cheery welcome to the town.

You'll hear the old and new bands play,
The wild, melodious pipes will skirl;
So come and spend with us a day,
And join us in the merry whirl;
And flags will wave from every roof,
And crowds will gather, large and small;
No one must stand that day aloof
When so much pleasure waits for all.

Out of the mist that shrouds the years,
The dear, dead years of long ago,
You may behold, amid the cheers,
The face of one you used to know;
And you'll shake hands and smile and smile
As Recollection lights the way,
And live again, just for a while,
With friends who loved you Yesterday.

So, Old-Timer! "Come to the fair,"
And help us form a gladsome throng;
All that we have we'll give or share
To make your life like some sweet song.
You gave us of your very best,
The rich experience of years;
Come now and be our welcome guest,
Receive our homage and our cheers.
—David G. Thomas

OLD TIMERS DAY. BY MYFANWY THOMAS GOODNOUGH.

As trembling twig, with leaves unbent Awakes to song in gladening June, As flowering gardens cast their scent So memories are lulled to tune.

Another year has come to life, Another festive day in June, When friend greets friend, when drum and fife Pour out their welcoming lyric tune.

The banners gay proclaim the day:
From throats of men, the gladsome lay
Emerges like the chirps of birds
To spread the cheery songs and words.
A smile, a tear, add to the face
That toil and pain have etched a trace;
But now the clay reflects sweet peace,
Rewarding work- the souls surcease.

These mem whose eyes shine with a flame Alight with love of friendships name, Whose hair, tho white as snow, lend graces, Enhancing beauty to their faces.

We give a toast and honor those Whose lives woo not the earthly woes; "Long life to you and health most dear, You honor truth and fear not fear; We wish you joy and greetings gay-On this, a glad 'Old Timers Day'."

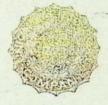

And may you give a kindly thought
To those asleep, whose work has wrought
Success, the fort on which you lean;
Whose souls held neither malice, mean
Nor sordid hate for those who toil,
May peace be theirs beneath the soil.

As trembling twig, with leaves unbent Awakes to song in gladening June, As flowering gardens cast their scent, So memories are lulled to tune.

"For the Sake of Old Lang Syne"

By DAVID G. THOMAS

(Dedicated to the Old Timers, Eighth Annual Reunion)

The sun played with the buds of May
Until they opened wide,
Then left them nodding all the way
Along the country side,
That June—the sweetest month of all—
Her breath like mellow wine,
Should greet you in the festive hall,
For the sake of old lang syne.

So come, Old Timer, lock the door
And hide away the key;
Be ready for the bounteous store
At this your jubilee;
Here happiness is waiting you,
Here you can dance and dine,
And friendships of the past renew
For the sake of old lang syne.

Again the merry drums will roll,
The bands will shout with glee;
The melodies that lift the soul
Will strengthen you and me;
And smiles will grace the furrowed brow,
And tears of gladness shine;
So come along—the time is now—
For the sake of old lang syne.

"It isn't all of life to live,
Nor all of death to die;"
Something within us we must give
Before we say "Goodbye";
And when we go away from here—
Our earthly cares resign—
May Heaven give us of its cheer
For the sake of old lang syne.

FOR THE OLD TIMERS

June 10th, 1933 By DAVID G. THOMAS

(Dedicated to Old Timers' Association Ninth Annual Reunion)

The town will be ablaze today And radiant with thrills;

The wind will play its chimes and hum A lyric of the hills;

For they've been drinking, quaffing from The fragrant cup of May;

And now they nod and welcome you On this Old Timers' Day.

Our hearts will glow with pride to see You marching with the band;

And when we wave at you and shout, We know you'll understand

That all the neighbors, young and old, The loving and the kind,

Will proudly cheer you and will know That none are left behind.

The banners waving in the breeze With you become a part,

The bands that merrily ring out Find echoes in your heart.

As you march forward, step by step, Dressed in your best and—fine;

The gay parade would not be gay If you were not in line.

O yes "there'll be a hot time" and
There's nothing left undone;

You'II find "the latch string hanging out"
To welcome every one!

Twill be a frolic as of old, Especially designed

To chase away the weary blπes-If any's on your mind.

So jog along and watch your step, Enjoyment be your aim;

The troubles that annoyed you most Were cares that never came;

Just let the old world roll along In its accustomed way While you bide with us for a while

On this Old Timers' Day.

TILL WE MEET AGAIN

Smile the while you kiss me sad adieu,
When the clouds roll by I'll come to you—
Then the skies will seem more blue,
Down in lovers' lane my dearie—
Wedding bells will ring so merrily,
Every tear will be a memory;
So wait and pray each night for me
Till we meet again.

5.

-Used by special permission.

6. MOONLIGHT AND ROSES

Moonlight and roses bring wonderful memories of you My heart reposes in beautiful thoughts so true, June light discloses love's olden dream sparkling anew, Mocnlight and roses bring memories of you.

-Used by permission.

7. A PERFECT DAY

When you come to the end of a perfect day,
And you sit alone with your thoughts,
While the chimes ring out with a carol gay,
For the joy that the day has brought.

Do you think what the end of a perfect day Can mean to a tired heart, When the sun goes down with a flaming ray, And the dear friends have to part.

-Used by special permission.

8. WHEN IT'S SPRINGTIME IN THE ROCKIES

When it's Springtime in the
Rockies,
I am coming back to you,
Little sweetheart of the mountains,
With your bonny eyes of blue,
Once again I'll say "I love you."
While the birds sing all the day,
When it's Springtime in the
Rockies,
In the Rockies, far away.

9. SILVER THREADS AMONG THE GOLD

Darling, I am growing old, Silver threads among the gold Shine upon my brow today; Life is fading fast away.

But, my darling you will be, will be Always young and fair to me, Yes, my darling you will be Always young and fair to me.

10. APRIL SHOWERS

Though April showers may come your way, They bring the flowers that bloom in May, So if it's raining, have no regrets Because it isn't raining rain, you know, It's raining violets, And where you see clouds upon the hills. You soon will see crowds of daffodils. So keep on looking for a blue bird, And list'ning for his song, Whenever April showers come along. -Used by special permission.

11. THERE'S A LONG, LONG TRAIL

There's a long, long trail
a-winding
Into the land of my dreams,
Where the nightingales are singing
And a white moon beams,
There's a long, long night of waiting
Until my dreams all come true;
Till the day when I'll be going down that long, long trail with you.
—Used by special permission.

12. GOOD-NIGHT LADIES

Good-night ladies! Goodnight, ladies!
Goodnight, ladies!
We're going to leave you now.
Merrily we roll along, roll along, roll along,
Merrily we roll along, O'er the dark blue sea.

13. ANNIE LAURIE

Maxwelton's braes are bonnie Where early fa's the dew, And it's there that Annie Launie Gave me her promise true, Gave me her promise true, Which ne'er forgot will be, And for bonnie Annie Laurie I'd lay me doon and dee.

Gone are the days when my heart
was young and gay;
Gone are my friends
From the cotton fields away;
Gone from the earth
To a better land I know.
I hear their gentle voices calling,
"Old Black Joe."
I'm coming, I'm coming,
For my head is bending low;
I hear those gentle voices calling,
"Old Black Joe."

15. MY OLD KENTUCKY HOME

The sun shines bright In the old Kentucky home, 'Tis summer, the darkies are gay; The corn top's ripe And the meadow's in the bloom, While the birds make music all the day; The young folks roll On the little cabin floor All merry, all happy and bright; By'n by hard times Comes a-knocking at the door, Then, my old Kentucky home, good night. Weep no more, my lady, O! weep no more today! We will sing one song For the old Kentucky home, For the old Kentucky home, far away.

16. LOVE'S OLD SWEET SONG

Once in the dear, dead days beyond recall,
When on the world the mists began to fall,
Out of the dreams that rose in happy throng.
Low to our hearts love sang an old, sweet song;
And in the dusk, where fell the firelight gleam.
Softly it wove itself into our dream.

Just a song at twilight,
When the lights are low,
And the flick'ring shadows
Softly come and go.
Though the heart be weary,
Sad the day and long,
Still to us at twilight
Comes love's old song,
Comes love's old, sweet song.

Evening Song Program

1.

It's a good time to get acquainted
 It's a good time to know

Who is sitting close beside you,
 And to smile and say, "Hello."

Good-bye that lonesome feeling,
 Good-bye glassy stare:

Here's my hand, my name is (Shout your name), b
 Now put yours right there.

2. (Tune: Battle Hymn of the Republic)
It isn't any trouble just to
S-M-I-L-E.
It isn't any trouble just to
S-M-I-L-E.
It isn't any trouble just to
S-M-I-L-E.
Just to S-M-I-L-E.
Glory, Glory, Hallelujah.
Glory, Glory, Hallelujah.
There isn't any trouble but will vanish like a bubble
If you S-M-I-L-E.

SWEET ADELINE

Sweet Adeline, my Adeline, At night, dear heart, For you I pine. In all my dreams Your fair face beams, You're the flower of my heart Sweet Adeline

4. ON MOONLIGHT BAY

We were sailing along
On Moonlight Bay,
We could hear the voices ringing,
They seemed to say—
"You have stolen my heart—
Now don't go 'way,"
As we sang Love's Old Sweet Song
On Moonlight Bay.

Come, Old-Timer: "come to the fair",
The city gates are open wide;
Your friends will all assemble there,
You'll see them when you step inside.
Luminous days! the sky is blue,
The hills, the old hills, green and brown,
Are waiting to smile down on you
Their cheery welcome to the town.

You'll hear the old and new bands play,
The wild, melodious pipes will skirl;
So come and spend with us a day,
And join us in the merry whirl;
And flags will wave from every roof,
And crowds will gather, large and small;
No one must stand that day aloof
When so much pleasure waits for all.

Out of the mist that shrouds the years,
The dear, dead years of long ago,
You may behold, amid the cheers,
The face of one you used to know;
And you'll shake hands and smile and smile,
As Recollection lights the way,
And live again, just for a while,
With friends who loved you Yesterday.

So, Old-Timer: "come to the fair",
And help us form a gladsome throng;
All that we have we'll give or share
To make your life like some sweet song.
You gave us of your very best,
The rich experience of years;
Come now and be our welcome guest,
Receive our homage and our cheers.
