On November 11th, 1925, at the Grand Cafe, Rock Springs, a banquet and farewell reception was given by the various Locals of the U. M. W. of A. in honor of the departing guests whose names are shown below, many of the members and District officials of which, besides officers of The Union Pacific Coal Company, Mayor P. C. Bunning, Hon. D. G. Thomas and others, were in attendance to wish them God-speed on their journey across the broad Pacific to their native land. Lao Chee, Stable Boss, Rock Springs, acted as Spokesman for the nine men and thanked the Company (and especially Messrs. McAuliffe, Pryde and others) for its generosity and thoughtfulness in thus enabling these old loyal and faithful servants to spend their declining years with loved ones in China. The men were "personally conducted" as far as San Francisco by Messrs. Tallmire and Harrington and the latter were busily engaged in looking after the many details incident to their going. The men departed from Frisco on the "President Taft" November 13th. Though Mr. McAuliffe was unable to be present upon the occasion, a telegram was read from him requesting "Our Jim" to convey to his countrymen the best wishes of the management for "bon-voyage" and the hope that they would enjoy long and happy lives in their future homes. Since their arrival in China, several letters have been received from the men testifying to their gratification, etc., at being in the midst of old time friends and relatives.

On November 11th, 1925, at the Grand Cafe, Rock Springs, a banquet and farewell reception was given by the various Locals of the U. M. W. of A. in honor of the departing guests whose names are shown below, many of the members and District officials of which, besides officers of The Union Pacific Coal Company, Mayor P. C. Bunning, Hon. D. G. Thomas and others, were in attendance to wish them God-speed on their journey across the broad Pacific to their native land. Lao Chee, Stable Boss, Rock Springs, acted as Spokesman for the nine men and thanked the Company (and especially Messrs. McAuliffe, Pryde and others) for its generosity and thoughtfulness in thus enabling these old loyal and faithful servants to spend their declining years with loved ones in China. The men were "personally conducted" as far as San Francisco by Messrs. Tallmire and Harrington and the latter were busily engaged in looking after the many details incident to their going. The men departed from Frisco on the "President Taft" November 13th. Though Mr. McAuliffe was unable to be present upon the occasion, a telegram was read from him requesting "Our Jim" to convey to his countrymen the best wishes of the management for "bon-voyage" and the hope that they would enjoy long and happy lives in their future homes. Since their arrival in China, several letters have been received from the men testifying to their gratification, etc., at being in the midst of old time friends and relatives.

THE STORY OF THE PAGEANT

THE PAGEANT OF PROGRESS is the story of the Spirits of Adventure, Pioneer and World Service in their journeyings to and sojourn in the coal districts of Wyoming where, guided by the Spirit of Progress, they develop the new west, build the Union Pacific Railway and, discovering coal, prepare to send it out to bring cheer and power to all the world.

It begins in a small town in Pennsylvania at the close of the Civil War, where a mother and three children, Pioneer, Adventure and World Service wait for the return of their father. The boys of the home grumble because it seems that there is now nothing for them to do for their country. Lincoln has signed the Emancipation Bill. Adventure feels cheated because he was too young to go with his father. His mother reminds him that the great Lincoln has said: "In times of war we must not forget to prepare for the problems of peace." They call for Progress, who has been, she says, "so near us lately," to advise with them. Progress assures young Pioneer and Adventure that she has need of them, and calling Spirit of World Service, too, she shows them:

First, Wyoming Territory undiscovered and inhabited only by Indians, then the signing of the Railway Bill by Lincoln (July 1, 1862 and July 2, 1864) the work of the building of the Railway; the Mountains and Streams and Willows of Wyoming; the discovery of coal by Captain Fremont in 1843 (near Cumberland, see Capt. Fremont's diary); the coming of the Trapper, the Trader, the Scout, the Indian girl guide Sacajawea.

A typical early scene of each of the Union Pacific Coal Company Towns is re-lived, and on the screen is shown early officials and well-known characters.

Spirit of World Service sees in the coal discovered in the New West, to be found and mined by Adventure and Pioneer, a chance for her to serve and to send cheer and power to bless all the world. Arranging her Flame Sprites in a dance of fire, she calls her Messengers, who are ready to carry the cheer far and wide.

During the World War Progress is checked and hesitant as the songs of the soldiers are heard in the distance and at home are seen the Red Cross war workers—and the women who wait. With the coming of peace and the return of the soldiers Progress again marches surely.

Representative organizations which have contributed largely to the District's progress are shown. Then comes Mr. Make-It-Safe with his Rock Dust Twins, modern mining methods and safety practices which Progress proudly acknowledges and welcomes as children of his.

The Flame Dancers again develop a huge fire and Spirit of World Service asks Progress to present the blazing coal, our district's gift to Columbia.

In the finale Columbia sings a song of acceptance, saying: "Our God is marching on."

FOR THE OLD TIMERS
June 10th, 1933.

David G. Thomas

The town will be ablaze today,
And radiant with thrills;
The Wind will play its chimes and hum
A lyric of the hills;
For they've been drinking, quaffing from
The fragrant cup of May;
And now they nod and welcome you
On this old timers day.

Our hearts will glow with pride to see
You marching with the band;
And when we wave at you and shout,
We know you'll understand
That all the neighbors, young and old,
The loving and the kind,
Will proudly cheer you and will know
That none are left behind.

The banners waving in the breeze
With you become a part,
The bands that merrily ring out
Find echoes in your heart.
As you march forward, step by step,
Dressed in your best and - fine;
The gay parade would not be gay
If you were not in line.

O yes "there'll be a hot time" and
There's nothing left undone;
You'll find "the latch string hanging out"
To welcome every one;
'Twill be a frolic as of old,
Especially designed
To chase away the weary blues—
If any's on your mind.

So jog along and watch your step,
Enjoyment be your aim;
The troubles that annoyed you most
Were cares that never came;
Just let the old world roll along
In its accustomed way
While you bide with us for a while
On this old timers day.

Dear Jim: Enclosed find my annual contribution to the cause of the old timers; don't know if this will suit, but I submit it for what it might be worth.

A few days ago I submitted a copy to Omaha, afterwards I discovered material errors, which I have corrected in this copy. If the verses are used I wish this copy and not the one I sent to Mr McAuliffe to be printed. Will send a copy to the "Miner" for publication in its issue of June 9th.

Val Marcina will hand this to you.

Sincerely

D. G. Thomas

OLD TIMERS 1934

The golden glory of mid-June brings us this festal day,
That we may meet and mingle in the good old fashioned way,
And visit with each other while the wondrous tales are told,
Of merriment and happiness ere we were counted old.

God took the silver from the stars and placed it in our hair,
And brushed away the aching pain and freed each soul from care;
And all around us we may see, no matter where we go,
A welcome smile awaiting us from friends we used to know.

The Old Home Town is festooned with gay banners waving high,
To catch the merry sunbeams as they flutter from the sky;
And all along the line of march the bands will sweetly play,
And people throng the busy streets to cheer you on the way.
And ye who knew the bonny glens, the heather and the broom,
May live again among the Lochs, or on the banks o' Doon;
For ye have heard the bag-pipes skirl as in your native land,
So let us all be "thankit" for McAuliffe's Kiltie Band.

The drama of the vanished years has been your lot to play,
How well you did your manly part is known to us today;
Now younger actors take the stage you occupied so long,
And so today they act and play and honor you with song.
So, cheerio, Old Timer, the world is yours today,
The Old Home Town is proud of you, whate'er you do or say;
And when the big parade is o'er we'll circle and join hands
And sing and dance and listen to the music of the bands.

—David G. Thomas.
