SAFETY ENGINEER

ROCK SPRINGS, WYOMING.

October 28th, 1925.

Mr. T. H. Butler:

Recently Mr. McAuliffe wrote asking that I develop the amount of compensation paid the heirs of the victims of the second explosion at No. 1 Mine in March, 1908.

In going back over the old records, I have found the names and amounts paid in 56 cases of the 59 victims but I fail to find where claims of Alex Briggs, B. F. Frink and James Tymer were ever paid.

Have you any records in the Hanna office of these claims? If so, please let me know the amounts paid in each case.

Hanna, Wyoming, Nov. 9, 1925

Mr. J. A. Smith:

Attached hereto, find copy of letter regarding settlements with the estate of victims of the two explosions of Hanna No. 1 Mine, March 28th, 1908. This is the only record that I am able to locate. It might be possible that Mr. Tallmire or Judge Lacey would have a record of the cases mentioned in your letter.
